

LOUISVILLE TIMES

LOUISVILLE:
JOHN O. BULLOCK & JOHN C. NOBLE, EDITORS

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES BUCHANAN,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY

Electoral Ticket:

For the State at large—ELIJAH HISE,
and COL. JOHN W. STEVENSON.
First District—COL. R. D. GHOOLIN.
Second District—GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.
Third District—JENKIN COX.
Fourth District—THELON CRAVENS.
Fifth District—BIRIAH MAGOFFIN.
Sixth District—W. F. RICE.
Seventh District—W. M. REED.
Eighth District—R. W. WOOLLEY.
Ninth District—H. R. STANTON.
Tenth District—HIRAM KELSEY.

FRIDAY..... SEPTEMBER 12, 1856.

Democratic Prospects in Ohio.

Ohio is usually regarded as certain for Fremont. The strong abolition proclivities of the State forbade all hope that she would cast her vote for Mr. Buchanan, the champion of the constitutional rights of the South. The Democrats of Ohio are, however, unwilling to concede that their State is thus disloyal to the Union, and are struggling with heroic zeal to avert such a calamity. From the following summary of the vote of 1852, 1854, and 1855, which we find in the Enquirer, there is some ground to hope that the State may be carried for Buchanan.

The total vote of Ohio was..... 50,000 of which General Pierce received, in round numbers..... 35,000
J. F. Hale..... 21,000
Strength of Anti-Slavery Party..... 185,000
The Union Party was..... 100,000
The Democratic vote..... 74,000

Now look at the vote of 1855:

Class received..... 146,000
Medall..... 131,000
Total..... 276,000

This shows a falling off in the Abolition vote of 27,000 in one year, and a gain for the Democracy of 22,000. As in, look at the fact that the Fusionists had a clear majority of 74,000 in 1854, and were in a minority of 10,000 when Chase was elected in 1855. Now, the question arises will not the decided masses of the Democracy, that refused to attend the polls in 1854, come to the polls in 1856? We answer, they will. The next question that arises is, will the Fillmore vote exceed that given Tribune? Of course it can not be. Mr. Fillmore must receive not less than 60,000 votes, and good judges place it at a higher figure. Assuming this to be true, and the vote to be as full as in 1854—

Fremont will receive..... 121,000
Fillmore..... 100,000
Total..... 221,000

The Black Republicans, in their wild excitement, forgot that there was polled 2,000 more votes against the Democracy in 1854 than ever had been cast before, and that they lost 40,000 of it in one year. They will discover that our friends remained at home in that year, refusing to attend the polls. They will also find that with Democrats it is one thing to remain at home and quite another to vote an Abolition ticket. The entire vote of Ohio will be out in November, and Abolition will find as it already begins to feel, from the tremendous meetings the Democracy are holding in every part of the State, that no quarter will be asked or given on the day of battle.

Our Bardstown Democratic friends have lately been gladdened with some eloquent Democratic speeches. First they had a speech from Mr. Miles, of Louisiana, an eloquent, chaste, and accomplished orator. Next they had the pleasure of listening to James R. Barbour, an old-line Whig farmer of Washington county, who delivered an eloquent and patriotic speech in favor of Buchanan and Breckinridge. And a few days after, the eloquent young Kentucky orator, John Y. Brown, electrified them with one of his rich, glowing, and sparkling speeches.

All over the State the Democracy are at work manfully, and if they will but continue faithful to the end, Kentucky will vote the Democratic ticket by 20,000 majority.

The action of the little clique of gentle men in this city, who assume to themselves the title, par excellence, of "Old-Line Whigs," is meeting, it deserves, with very general contempt. The idea of Judge Pirtle, P. A. Atwood, L. L. Shreve, &c., calling themselves Old-Line Whigs, is truly laughable to those who know that they are among the most "intelligent" Know-Nothings in the city. Judge Pirtle, indeed, declared a short time since, in a published letter, that he had belonged to the "American party" for twenty years.

The Democrats of New Jersey have nominated for Governor the most popular man in the State—a man of great purity of character, and possessing extraordinary powers of eloquence. He is a son of the late celebrated Professor Alexander, of Princeton, and brother of two of the present Professors. He is a lawyer of standing, and will carry great strength for the Buchanan ticket.

Physicians.

A Democrat a few days ago, who well under stood the condition of things in Owen, offered a bet that the county will give a majority of fifteen hundred for Buchanan and Breckinridge, though he well knows that the whole population of the county entitled to vote amounts to no more than twelve hundred!—Journal.

The official returns of the vote of Owen county, Ky., for Circuit Judge is one thousand nine hundred and seventy nine! (1856). The editor of the Louisville Journal lies through thick and thin, utterly forgetting the necessity of making his lies sizeable. He is as regardless of truth as he is reckless of decency or common sense.

Now, owing to the great pressure of editorial and other matter, in our paper of yesterday, we were forced to omit to notice the speeches of Martin Bijur, of this city, and Col. Ben Selby, of New Castle, Ky., before the Fifth and Sixth Ward Clubs, on Wednesday night last. Mr. Bijur having been previously announced, made the first speech, speaking about one hour. His speech was eloquent and logical, often winning the plaudits of the large audience assembled to hear him. Mr. Bijur has a destiny before him which any young man might envy. After Mr. Bijur closed his speech, Col. Selby was vociferously called for. He made one of the most powerful, sarcastic, and eloquent speeches that has ever been your good fortune to hear. He was frequently applauded by the pleased and delighted multitude assembled around him.

The California American gives an account of a trial of skill in rifle shooting between Dr. Downes and T. O. Shelly. Distance two hundred yards, at a target two and a half inches in diameter. They fired ten shots each. Five of Shelly's were center shots, and could be covered with a dime; the other five ranged from a half to three quarters of an inch from the center. Nine of Downes' shots were center shots, and all broke in together, and could be covered with a half dollar; the whole ten shots could be covered with a dollar.

LOUIS NAPOLEON.—Though the Paris correspondents say little on the subject, it is said to be well known in that city that Louis Napoleon is in a precarious state of health.

This letter shows that the grounds upon which Mr. Fillmore is supported, even by his most conservative friends at the North, are strictly sectional. They claim that he has always been opposed to the acquisition of slave territory, and pledge him never to consent to the extension of slavery. It shows that Fillmore's northern friends believe that his ancestors—antagonism to slavery in every shape and every form—are the true exponents of his present views; and that his denunciation of the repeal of the Missouri restriction is overwhelming evidence of the fact. This letter also shows that the Know-Nothing platform is interpreted at the north to be an anti-slavery platform and commits the party against the admission of Kansas as a slave state.

No intelligent man can read this letter and fail to be disgusted with the turpitude of Mr. Fillmore's southern supporters:

FILLMORE—"A LADY BY HIS ANTECEDENTS"—IS ANOTHER TESTIMONY FROM A RESPONSIBLE PERSON.—Mr. Hiram Ketchum, of New York, is amongst Fillmore's most confidential and intimate friends, in a personal as well as a political sense. If any man in the north is entitled to have an accurate knowledge of Fillmore's opinions on public affairs, Mr. Hiram Ketchum is that individual. Justified by the intimate relations which have long existed between himself and the Know-Nothing candidate, Mr. Ketchum ventured at some time to define Fillmore's position in regard to the extension of slavery. In the letter from Mr. Fillmore to the New York Courier and Enquirer of the 3d of September, we find the following:

"The Editors of the Courier and Enquirer:

In your leading article of Saturday morning, you have seen fit to make use of my name, connecting it with imputations which I feel bound to repel.

In my speech at New Haven, speaking upon the subject of slavery extension, I said :

"...I do not mean to give any entry to that occasion. If there is any man here, or in the State of Connecticut, that has ever opposed the extension of slavery more than he who addresses you to-night, or has ever done more to give the slave his legal and constitutional rights, I would like to see that man. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

It is the opinion of the 3d of September, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery.

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Applause.)

"But upon this subject of the extension of slavery what are Mr. Fillmore's principles? Why, he just thinks as we all think, will venture to say that he is a good man, and a true friend to the slaves. (Applause.) Gentlemen, I am not giving myself early in life to any cause which was not my own, and I am not giving up the extension of slavery."

And I say here, that the Whig party of the north has always had that creed, and these Republicans can't take out a patent for it for many a long year. (Merriment and applause.) And I say here, that Millard Fillmore has been true to that party, and has never had, since he entered into political life, any other principle but that which would prevent the further extension of slavery. (Ap

LOUISVILLE TIMES.

W. S. SWYNNER,
General Newspaper Advertising Agent, corner of Olive and Main Streets, Louisville, is the agent for the Times.

A. D. JACKSON,

SUCCESSOR TO S. T. GARRISON & CO.,
The duly authorized agent for the Louisville Times and Patent Right Office.

No. 124 - Nycamore st., bet. Fourth and Fifth, Cincinnati, O.

FRIDAY..... SEPTEMBER 12, 1856.

JOB PRINTING.

The proprietors of the Daily Louisville Times have recently refitted and greatly enlarged their Job printing facilities, invite the patronage of the public.

MERCANTILE, STEAMBOAT, SHOW, POS-TER, and other printing done in a superior manner, with great expedition, and at the lowest rates.

We invite all who desire work done to call,
and examine our facilities and specimens.

We have experienced workmen employed, and warrant all work to give entire satisfaction.

BODW WANTED.

In a respectable Private Family, for a gentleman and his wife. They will furnish their own apartment.

Terms must be moderate. Address "E. O."
TUESDAY OFFICE.

Barbecue at Hardinsville.

There will be a Barbecue at Hardinsville, Shelby county, on Saturday, the 13th inst., at which time Elijah Hise will address the people.

THE PRESENTMENT OF THE DEMO-CRATIC BANNER TO THE GREAT TEST TUNING OUT OF THE SENATE.

An early hour last evening an immense crowd assembled around Moore Hall, in the hope of being able to see interesting ceremonies, which had been advertised to take place. About eight o'clock ("The Young Ladies Democratic Association of the 8th Ward," escorted by about a thousand gentlemen, marched up Jefferson street in the direction of the Hall. The procession was headed by thirty-one beautiful young ladies dressed in white, each one bearing a transparency, upon which were inscribed patriotic mottos. Jefferson street from Twelfth to Fourth was literally packed with human beings, who greeted the beautiful spectacle with enthusiastic cheers. All Louisville seemed to have turned out to pay tribute to the patriotism of our fair country-women. After the Hall had been filled to its utmost capacity, thousands yet remained on the outside. Miss Wilkinson, in a chaste and beautiful address presented the Banner to Mr. Isaac Caldwell the "President of the Club," who responded in his usual happy and felicitous manner. On the whole it was the most imposing demonstration that ever took place in the city, and evidences a spirit on the part of the Democracy that is sure to win a splendid victory in November.

A gentleman who saw the affray at Henryville, Indiana, on Wednesday, informs us that it was provoked and torched upon the Democrats by the Know-Nothing bullies. During the day they were denouncing the Democrats and threatening to whip and shoot any one who would shout for Buchanan. At last they brought out the Relief Hospital, Fort Hamilton. There is no additional case at the Military Hospital and the previous cases are doing well. Two new cases, Doctors Dubois and Crave, are reported at New Utrecht. Both severe attacks.

THEATRE.—The play of Ingomar was executed last night with a powerful cast, and we were gratified to see a large audience in attendance. Mrs. Ward added new laurels to the reputation she has already attained in this community. Hanley's Ingomar was a perfect piece of acting. "Take it all in all" we have never witnessed a better rendering of the various characters of this interesting play.

"That Blessed Baby" elicited a perfect round of merriment and applause. Mrs. Bernard was truly the mother (for the time) of that Blessed Baby. We congratulate our friend and the people on the success of the play. The Fair, and Meredith were forced to fly and were chased several squares. Some escaped through a back window of the hall.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this morning, and three Irish laboring men in the baggage car were killed and several others badly injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and
Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and
Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

The early train on the Boston and Maine R.R.
was thrown from the track near Reading this
morning, and three Irish laboring men in the
baggage car were killed and several others badly
injured. None of the passengers were hurt.—
The engine and baggage car were demolished.

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON is "crowded to death" with people
of all conceivable manner—some drunk, others "tiger-
growl," and are always too ready to take a hand at draw, "just to make up the game."

Louisville has a large delegation here. They
are honor to the Falls City. At "hope" will be
arrived from Louisville bear of the palm, and the hungry and
dry will be attended to in fine style.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11. The steamship Fulton, from Hove and Southampton, has arrived. She brings London and Havre to the 27th, the day of her arrival.

The steamer Texas, from New Orleans, has arrived.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. The steamer Empire, from New Orleans and
Havana, is signalled now.

CLOTHING & C.
MERCHANT TAILOR,
AND CLOTHIER,
MARKET ST., EAST FLOYD & PRESTON,
(North side).
LOUISVILLE, KY.

This undergong has on hand a splendid assortment of Clothing of all kind—Ready-Made, or made to order, and can furnish any article you may desire. Please call at it. I cannot please them, they give me no time. They cannot get satisfied elsewhere in the city. Stop on now, my friend, whether you buy or not. —CONRAD KAMM.

NEW AND BEAUTIFUL
Fancy Dry Goods

A Second Importation received this morning by Express at

BENT & DUVALL,
No. 537 Main street, opposite Bank of Kentucky.

OUR special purchase being now in the Eastern market, we are able to offer the ladies wear, in the following received the morning by Express:

Flannel, etc.; Do Suits;

Blue and Green; Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

Cashmere Scarfs, very cheap;

Black Organza, entirely new style;

Do Crapé do;

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.

White Organza, lace Mantles, extra rich;

White Organza, lace Robes;

Colored do;

Embroidered Tulle Robes, great variety;

Embossed Tulie Robes, all colors;

Rich Striped and Figured Organza;

Black Organza, etc.